

C.C.PIERCE :

A NEW AGENT JOINING OUR SALES FORCE

September 15, 2019

C.C.Pierce Company, Inc., was established in 1922 when Clarence C. Pierce founded the Company with hard work, dedication and extensive Industry relationships. In 1944, the standards that were established continued with Philip T. Chase taking the helm until 1968, when Rogers S. Chase took over management of the Company.

Then in 1971, Russell C. Chase, joined his brother, Rogers, in ownership, eventually becoming President in 1978.

Through his leadership and direction, Russell has nurtured and grown the Company into what has become one of the most respected, dedicated, and sales driven Agencies in New England.

Brooks Chase joined C.C. Pierce in 1993, becoming a partner in 1998, and then President in 2005. Brooks is one of the youngest persons running a leading Agency in New England. Through his commitment, as the fourth generation of owners, he furthers the foundation of hard work, dedication and established relationships, while continually growing the Company. With the addition of Rich Bartosch in 2008, C.C.Pierce has fortified its presence in the New England market.

Today, we are 11 employees strong, with an experienced, energetic, award winning Sales Team, supported by a knowledgeable Inside Sales group, located in Duxbury, MA. Currently, we service Massachusetts, Connecticut, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, and Rhode Island. We work diligently to foster and grow the relationships between our Distributors, Customers, and the Manufacturers we represent. As the new agent for FRE Composites, C.C.Pierce Company, Inc. looks forward to developing opportunities in our region to grow Sales and expand Market share.

Past noteworthy projects included, Encore Casino in Everett, MA, Harvard MBTA Terminal, MBTA Red Line Test Track, Charter Oak Bridge, Metro North, and Tesla. On-going job targets have been the DOT, bridge repairs, and university renovations.
